Title IX and Gender Based Discrimination

Columbia Gorge Community College strives to provide a safe environment in which students can pursue their education free of the detrimental effects of sexual assault, sexual misconduct and gender-based discrimination. Therefore, the College seeks to educate students, faculty and staff about these issues and to provide a means of recourse for those individuals who believe they have experienced such behavior. The College reserves the right to respond with whatever measures it deems appropriate to prevent sexual misconduct and preserve the safety and well-being of its students and employees. We encourage anyone who has been a victim of sexual harassment, sexual violence, or discrimination to report the issue immediately. Any person who believes he or she has been discriminated against, a victim of assault or harassment, or witnessed such behavior, by a College employee, representative or student is encouraged to submit the Title IX Complaint form as early as possible following the incident. If you would like to report discrimination of other types, please use this General Reporting form.
